

Web-based Resources for Mentorship

National Academies 2020 Report on The Science of Effective Mentorship in STEMM.

<https://www.nationalacademies.org/our-work/the-science-of-effective-mentoring-in-stemm>

The National Research Mentoring Network (NRMN) is a platform for both connecting mentors with mentees and providing a variety of trainings on Mentorship. <https://nrmnet.net/>

The Center for the Improvement of Mentored Experiences in Research (CIMER) at University of Wisconsin, Madison - <https://cimerproject.org/>. Penn State has ~18 faculty members who have been trained to facilitate mentorship training workshops by this group. They have curricula for mentor training on a wide range of topics as well as resources on mentorship and training courses.

Mentor Training Opportunities for Faculty

Collaboration between the Graduate School and the Office of the Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs. Two half-day sessions (Oct. 16 12-4 and Oct. 19 8:30-12:30) and a three session virtual series (Oct. 23, 30, and Nov. 6 :30-5). Limited to ~50 faculty. "On demand" mentorship training to units is also available.